

Regulating Alcohol In The 21st Century

2015 Annual Conference – San Diego, CA

Dear NCSLA Member,

The National Conference of State Liquor Administrators, Incorporated (NCSLA) will assemble June 14-17th at the Rancho Bernardo Inn for its 2015 annual meeting and conference in San Diego, California. Serving as conference host is the California Alcoholic Beverage Control and Director Timothy Gorsuch.

The annual conference theme is “Regulating Alcohol In The 21st Century,” and the business agenda will cover a number of diverse and current issues over the course of three (3) days.

Join moderator and game show host-extraordinaire, Bill Tomaszewski, General Counsel of Wine.com, and two teams of regulator and industry panelists in the Family Feud of Ethics! Real live case studies will be tackled through a variety of questions on topics including: Client Confidentiality (ABA Rule 1.6), Withdrawal from Representation (ABA Rule 1.16), Government Ethics (ABA Rules 1.7-1.11), and Corporate Social Responsibility.

Our two “families” hail from around the country. The “Regulator family” will feature Matthew Botting of the California ABC, Jessica Starns of the Louisiana ATC, Michael Halfacre of the New Jersey ABC, and David Rothenberg of the Indiana ATC. The “Industry family” includes Ronald Fondiller of Constellation Brands, Michael Newman of Holland & Knight, Kelly Geer of Federal Express, and Joanne Moak of Wine & Spirits Wholesalers of America. There will be much to learn from these willing participants as they square off against one other in a feud of knowledge and wit about our professional responsibilities. Observe the two families go head-to-head on Wednesday, June 17th, analyzing present-day ethical situations and applying the rules. You will also have the opportunity to contribute to the discussion by completing a short survey in advance of the conference. You won’t want to miss the survey results and stimulating discussion on these current ethical issues!
