

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Pamela Frantz, Management Consultant
847-721-6410

NCSLA Board Member Teri L. Quimby (MI Commission) Receives NALCP 2017 Best Practices Award

October 25, 2017 – Commissioner Teri L. Quimby of the Michigan Liquor Control Commission, and current 2nd Vice-President of the National Conference of State Liquor Administrators, was awarded the 2017 Best Practices Award by the National Association of Licensing Compliance Professionals at the NALCP Annual Conference in San Diego, California last week. The Award was presented for Extraordinary Innovation, Dedication and Leadership. “I am honored to receive this award by this prestigious Association. I am committed to creating dialogue and resolving issues. Keeping compelling state interests in mind, such as preventing sales to minors and intoxicated individuals, protection of consumers, and collection of state taxes, I am firmly committed to trying to get to positive resolution of an issue whenever possible.” Keith Burt, President of NCSLA, stated: “The NCSLA leadership team is comprised of highly regarded and accomplished regulators, and I am privileged to serve on the board with members like Commissioner Quimby. I congratulate her on this significant award and recognition.”

The National Association of Licensing and Compliance Professionals (“NALCP”) is a non-profit organization comprised of in-house hospitality licensing and compliance professionals specializing in on and off premises retail liquor licensing. Formed in 2006, NALCP is the first and only organization of its kind to provide services, support and networking on behalf of the hospitality industry’s in-house liquor licensing professionals. NALCP members include licensing professionals from various industries including restaurants, entertainment venues, hotels, grocery and other retail services.

Commissioner Teri L. Quimby was appointed in 2011 by Governor Snyder. She is one of three commissioners with responsibility for administering the provisions of the Michigan Liquor Control Code relating to licensing, purchasing, enforcement, merchandising, and distribution of alcoholic beverages. Also, these commissioners constitute the agency’s appellate board.

Commissioner Quimby has an extensive background in state and local government, has acquired considerable regulatory experience in environmental, utility, commerce issues, and alcoholic beverage issues, and has been licensed to practice law in Michigan and Illinois for over 25 years. As a graduate of Michigan State University’s James Madison College (with a major in Justice, Morality and Constitutional Democracy, and a minor in German) and Western Michigan University’s Cooley Law School, she is committed to the pursuit of good public policy.

About The National Conference of State Liquor Administrators, Incorporated:

A national, non-profit corporation founded in 1934, in Chicago, Illinois, NCSLA is composed of state regulators as active members, and associate members consisting of manufacturers, wholesalers, retailers, attorneys, associations, and others in the alcoholic beverages sector. Currently, 37 of 50 state regulatory agencies are active NCSLA members. The primary focus of NCSLA is education on historical and current issues related to the regulation of alcoholic beverages. Visit www.ncsla.org for more information.