

ANNOUNCEMENT

Please extend a heartfelt welcome to these new Associate Members who recently joined NCSLA!

CITY OF LAS VEGAS, DEPARTMENT OF PLANNING - BUSINESS LICENSING DIVISION

Karen Duddlesten, Business Licensing Manager and Denise Kaplan, Sr. Management Analyst

The Department of Planning prepares and implements plans to administer and recommend entitlements, and offers advice about development that will enhance the quality of life of the citizens of Las Vegas. It provides information on current planning, which deals with zoning and development reviews; and comprehensive planning, which deals with long range planning issues and data. It also provides Business Licensing for every individual, partnership, firm or corporation that is located within the Las Vegas city limits.

BREWERS ASSOCIATION

Paul Gatza, Director and Pete Johnson, Programs Manager

The Brewers Association is an organization of brewers, for brewers and by brewers. More than 1,500 US brewery members and 34,000 members of the American Homebrewers Association are joined by members of the allied trade, beer wholesalers, individuals, other associate members and the Brewers Association staff to make up the Brewers Association. Their purpose is to promote and protect small and independent American brewers, their craft beers and the community of brewing enthusiasts.

CALIFORNIA RESTAURANT ASSOCIATION

Jot Condie, President & CEO and Karen Fulkerson, Executive Assistant

The California Restaurant Association is a full-service solution for every variety and size of restaurant. They are at once powerful advocates, legal advisers, an information hub and a catalyst for networking. And they're committed to offering meaningful perks and resources needed to attract and retain customers and run a profitable business.

HELBRAUN LEVEY & O'DONOGHUE LLP

Joseph R. Levey, Esq., Partner

Helbraun Levey & O'Donoghue LLP is a full-service law firm focused on the legal and licensing needs of New York's bar and restaurant industry. From start-ups to star chefs, they help clients develop, grow and succeed with their extensive industry knowledge and client-driven, individualized approach to legal representation.

About National Conference of State Liquor Administrators, Incorporated:

A national organization of state alcohol beverage regulators, founded June 19, 1934, in Chicago, Illinois, whose purposes are to promote the enactment of the most effective and equitable types of state alcoholic beverage control laws; devise and promote the use of methods which provide the best enforcement of the particular alcoholic beverage control laws in each state; work for the adoption of uniform laws insofar they may be practicable; promote harmony with the federal government in its administration of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act; and strive for harmony in the administration of the alcoholic beverage control laws among the several states. Visit www.ncsla.org for more information.