

ANNOUNCEMENT

REGISTRATION IS OPEN FOR TTB TRADE PRACTICE SEMINARS

Have you ever wondered why TTB keeps mentioning “pay to play” when talking about unlawful trade practices? Are you concerned that you may be operating in violation of the “tied-house” rules? Should you be concerned? What exactly are “consignment sales” anyway?

Come learn all this and more as TTB presents half-day Trade Practice Seminars geared towards alcohol beverage industry members or their representatives. During these seminars TTB will discuss laws, regulations, and enforcement efforts to prohibit certain alcohol marketing practices that are deemed to cause unfair competition.

Officials from the applicable state regulatory agencies will also be there to talk about trade practice enforcement from their state’s perspective.

To register, click on the appropriate link below and follow the instructions on the registration page. Space is limited, so be sure to register soon!
