

NCSLA announces 2010-11 Officers & Executive Director

The National Conference of State Liquor Administrators is pleased to announce the Executive Board and Regional chairpersons for the fiscal year. Serving as President is Tennessee ABC Executive Director Danielle Elks, 1st Vice President-William Kelley of Massachusetts, 2nd Vice President-Rick Garza of Washington, 3rd Vice President-Roger Johnson of Wisconsin, Central Region Chairman-Thomas Groneman of Kansas, Northern Region Chairman-Curtis Coleburn of Virginia, Southern Region Chairman-Robert Hill of Alabama, Western Region Chairman-Matthew Botting of California, and industry representatives are Tara Heath of Boston Beer Company and Evan Lawson of Lawson & Weitzen, LLP. Regional Vice Chairpersons are: Central-Anne Hutchison of North Dakota, North-John Cordrey of Delaware; South-Sherry Cook of Texas; and West-Rudy Williams of Oregon.

Pamela Frantz accepted the position of Executive Director effective July 1, 2010. She has over 22 years of industry regulatory experience and previously served as Director, Industry Affairs at Beam Global Spirits & Wine, Inc.

Please join us in congratulating them and wishing them success in their leadership endeavors!